

CV

(*1981, sound artist) - Growing up in Basel, my works move on the borders between sound installations, visual art, experimental music and within that I'm interested in the phenomenon of contingency. I call something contingent if something could also be possible in a different way, and thus describe the uncertainty of future events and deeds that can be experienced, for example, in moments of free-floating and hesitation on an individual as well as collective level. Especially when I want to find out something new in my artistic research, the question arises of how I behave in the unknown. As a sound artist, the question I work on usually leads me to a medium or material. Installations, performances and objects each in an effort to search for transformation processes that show motion in fragile or unstable state. In my research, I often circle around uncertain possibilities and create intuitive experimental cartographies, with the possibility that something interesting will get caught in them. Failures, disappointments, surprises, encounters and knowledge gained are all part of the process. My work has been shown at venues such as Kunsthalle Bern, Kunsthaus Pasquart Biel, , Kunstmuseum La Chaux-de-Fonds, Museum der Kulturen Basel, Landesmuseum Zürich, Kunsthalle Winterthur, Milano Musica, Wien Modern, Ars Electronica Digital, Theater Roxy Birsfelden, Dampfzentrale Bern, Arcaden Gallery Berlin, Fondation l'Abri Geneva, Interdans Festival Belgium, Les Digitales Festival Bern, Festival Klang-Basel, etc.
